Subject: re. Consultation Paper on an Easy and Transparent Trading reform

Hi,

If you really want to know what every licensee thinks, then why not set up a survey and send it to every licensee , like all MBA members etc. etc. and then get a true picture of what they all think.....and not just the opinion of the myriad of organisations who continue to exist because of all the current outdated regulations that will totally, no doubt, stifle the whole N.S.W. building industry in the coming recession.

Thanks,

Peter Hesky.
