Exceptional circumstances

An exemption may only be granted if it is, in the exceptional circumstances of the case, in the public interest to do so. "Exceptional circumstances" must be more than "special circumstances" to satisfy the requirements under section 10 (2) of the Retail Trading Act 2008. For guidance on the test for "exceptional circumstances", refer to Dwyer v Department of Services, Technology and Administration and Kmart Australia Limited [2010] NSWADT 312.

Specify the exceptional circumstances in support of your exemption application for the shop and restricted trading day:

See attached supporting material.

Public interest

To help determine whether the exemption sought is in the public interest, answer the following questions:

1. What is the nature of the shop and kinds of goods sold?

See attached supporting material.

2. Why does the shop need to be kept open on the restricted trading day?

See attached supporting material.

3. What is the likely effect on the local economy, tourism, small businesses and other businesses in the area if the exemption is granted?

See attached supporting material.

4. What is the likely effect on employees or persons working in the shop if the exemption is granted?

[In your response indicate the number of employees likely to work on the restricted trading day if an exemption is granted, and specify the industrial instrument/s (including agreement number/s), under which employees working on the day will be employed]

See attached supporting material.

Applicants signature

Note. Regard will be had to each of the matters listed above in determining whether the exemption sought is in the public interest. This application will be put on public exhibition.

It is an offence to fail to comply with any conditions imposed on an exemption.
