Information for applicants

This application is for entities seeking approval to deliver the compulsory Continuing Professional Development (CPD) topics for the property industry.

Entities seeking approval by the Property Services Commissioner must demonstrate:

- a strong property services subject matter delivery history,
- a record of training excellence in property services,
- a commitment to improving the capabilities of licence holders to achieve compliance with their responsibilities under the Act and objectives of compulsory CPD,
- a framework to deliver compulsory CPD requirements to a high standard showing how training is to be delivered, the qualifications and expertise of individual employees as it relates to the property sector, how the training will be interactive or how training will be securely delivered via online module.
- an assessment strategy that ensures learning outcomes are achieved and can be demonstrated,
- the learning is accessible to industry participants across NSW.

Entities must also agree to comply with the CPD Conditions of Approval (Conditions).

For further information regarding the requirements for approval, please read the Approved Provider Guidelines (Guidelines).

For help in lodging this form, email REandP@customerservice.nsw.gov.au

Period of approval

For all new applicants, approval is provided for a period of one CPD year.

For all other applicants, approval is provided for a period of three CPD years (unless the applicant specifies a lesser period) and will expire at the end of the third CPD year. Approval can be revoked by the Property Services Commissioner at any time.

How to lodge

Completed forms are to be submitted via email to REandP@customerservice.nsw.gov.au.

Privacy information

The Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 (the PPIP Act) outlines how NSW public sector agencies manage personal information. Fair Trading, as a public sector agency that holds personal information, must not disclose personal information to a person (other than the individual to whom the information relates) unless:

- the disclosure is directly related to the purpose for which the information was collected, and the agency disclosing the information has no reason to believe that the individual concerned would object to the disclosure, or
- b) the individual concerned is reasonably likely to have been aware, or has been made aware in accordance with section 10 of the PPIP Act, that information of that kind is usually disclosed to that other person or body, or
- c) the agency believes on reasonable grounds that the disclosure is necessary to prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to the life or health of the individual concerned or another person, or
- d) the disclosure is permitted or required by an Act, including an Act of the Commonwealth, or any other law.

We will not disclose your personal information to anybody else unless you have given consent, or we are authorised or permitted to do so by law. Our Privacy Statement describes when this may occur. You can find this information and our Privacy Management Plan on the Department of Customer Service website.

Please see the Fair Trading Privacy Code of Practice for more information about how we handle your personal information, how you can request access to or correct the personal information we hold about you (if the information is inaccurate, incomplete, not relevant or out of date) and who to contact if you have a privacy enquiry or complaint, or email brdprivacy@customerservice.nsw.gov.au.
