Application for Renewal
Under Transitional Arrangements for a MOTOR VEHICLE TRADESPERSON CERTIFICATE
Motor Dealers Repairers Act 2013

The Motor Dealers and Repairers Act 2013 commenced on 1 December 2014. This Act replaced the Motor Vehicle Repairers Act 1980 and the Motor Dealers Act 1974.

Under the Motor Dealers and Repairers Act 2013 (the Act) tradesperson's certificates are required to be renewed every 3 years. If the tradesperson's certificate is not renewed then the certificate will expire. If you have an expired certificate you can renew under transitional arrangements in 2019.

The date for the renewal of a tradesperson's certificate will be based on the original grant date of the certificate. To find out when a tradesperson's certificate is due for renewal, refer to the Information for Applicants attached to this form.

To renew a tradesperson's certificate, complete and sign this form and lodge the form as indicated below.

If you hold additional certificates for other classes of repair, they can be merged into one record. To do so please list them all below and tick Merge box.

INFORMATION FOR APPLICANTS

The following information is provided for applicants applying to renew their tradesperson's certificate under the Motor Dealers and Repairers Act 2013.

The Motor Vehicle Repairs Act 1980 was repealed on 1 December 2014 by the Motor Dealers and Repairers Act 2013 (the Act).

Renewal of your tradesperson's certificate

Tradesperson's certificates renewed under the Motor Dealers and Repairers Act 2013 will have a duration of 3 years at which point they will fall due for renewal.

Grant Date of Tradesperson's Certificate	Year Due for Renewal
1980 - 1987	2019
1988 - 2008	2019
2009 - 2014	2019

The day of the year that a tradesperson's certificate will be due for renewal is the day before the anniversary date of the granting of the original certificate.

Example 1:	if a tradesperson's certificate was originally granted on 23 August 1985, renewal must be lodged by 22 August 2019
-------------------	--

Example 2:	if a tradesperson's certificate was originally granted on 17 April 1990, renewal must be lodged by 16 April 2019
-------------------	--

Example 3:	if a tradesperson's certificate was originally granted on 30 June 2010, renewal must be lodged by 29 June 2019
-------------------	--

Warning: If a tradesperson's certificate is not renewed by the due date it will expire. If a tradesperson's certificate does expire, an application to restore the certificate may be made within 3 months of the expiry date.

Classes of repair work

On the commencement of the Motor Dealers and Repairers Act 2013 there were changes to the classes of repair work. The table below shows the changes. The classes of repair work held by certificate holders changed accordingly.

Under the Act no new tradesperson's certificates will be issued with a restricted scope of work. Existing holders of tradesperson's certificates with a restricted scope of work may however continue to hold and renew their certificate with the existing restriction.

Class of Repair Work under the Motor Vehicle Repairs Act 1980	Class of Repair Work under the Motor Dealers & Repairers Act 2013
liquefied petroleum gas mechanic	liquefied petroleum gas mechanic natural gas mechanic	liquefied natural gas mechanic and compressed natural gas mechanic
automotive electrician	automotive electrician
body maker	body maker
brake mechanic exhaust repairer front end specialist	underbody work Note: certificates issued under the 1980 Act will be subject to the condition that the person must not undertake work other than work that the person was authorised to carry out under the tradesperson's certificate that the person held under the 1980 Act.
motor cycle mechanic	motor cycle mechanic
motor mechanic	motor mechanic
panelbeater	panelbeater
transmission specialist	transmission specialist vehicle painter	vehicle painter
radiator repairer	No equivalent Note: Existing holders of tradesperson's certificates issued in the repair class of radiator repairer may continue to hold and renew their tradesperson's certificate. New applicants who intend to carry out radiator repair work will be required to hold a tradesperson's certificate in the repair class of motor mechanic.

Provisional tradesperson's certificate

A provisional tradesperson's certificate issued under the Motor Vehicle Repairs Act 1980 cannot be renewed.
