Subject: Removal of painting licenses.

Hi,
Just responding to the suggested removal of painting licenses.
This will decimate the industry, as apps such as 'airtasker' and 'service seeking' will immediately sign up any man and their dog as painters.
This means that every and all legitimate businesses will be undercut by unqualified, inexperienced cowboys out to make a quick buck.
For the most part, I am all for de-regulation, but in the case of the removal of contractor licenses, I am absolutely against.
I currently employ 8-tradesman, and I fear that moving forward with this new de-regulation will decimate my business and put these tradesman out of work.
Thanks,

Regards,
