RETAIL TRADING ACT 2008 DECISION

REASONS FOR DECISION

1. I, Vicki Telfer, am an officer delegated by the Secretary of the Treasury under the Retail Trading Act 2008 to exercise the functions prescribed in the above Act.

On this day I have decided to refuse an application, received on 11 August 2016, by Lovisa Pty Ltd pursuant to section 10 of the Retail Trading Act 2008, as I am not satisfied that the applicant has demonstrated the existence of exceptional circumstances as required by the section.

2. In making this decision I have taken into account the principles articulated in a decision of the Administrative Decisions<sup>1</sup> Tribunal that the test under section 10 is a two step process:
  1. there being a need for both exceptional circumstances; and
  2. for the granting of the exemption to be in the public interest having regard to the:
    - (a) Nature of the shop and the kinds of goods sold by the shop;
    - (b) Need for the shop to be kept open on the day concerned;
    - (c) Likely effect of the proposed exemption on the local economy, tourism and small businesses and other businesses in the area; and
    - (d) Likely effect of the proposed exemption on employees of, or persons working in, the shop.
3. My reasons for this decision include the following:
  - (a) the applicant's submissions (reasons outlined in its application) have not demonstrated exceptional circumstances; and
  - (b) the applicant submits no evidence to support the contention that it is in the public interest for the employees of the occupier to work on the restricted trading day, or that all labour would be voluntary and appropriate penalty rates would be paid.
