Message	Hi Matt, I own a finance broking business hat operates in regional NSW, in many cases in towns with very small populations and where the banks have reduced or closed their branches. I believe that while you may have spoken with other industry participants, gaining a regional perspective of the broking sector would be an advantage in the current considerations. I am more than happy to go to Sydney (or wherever) to meet with you, explain the circumstances of our business, and the implications on service. competition, and our viability if there were to be a change of remuneration.

I have been in the finance industry for 36 years now and have seen plenty of evolution.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Regards,

David
